

Contact: Matt Lloyd

PENCE TO HONOR NORMANDY VETS AND MUNCIE HEROES

Washington, Jul 14, 2004 - WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Mike Pence today announced that at his Muncie town hall meeting this Saturday he will be presenting medals to veterans of Normandy as well as recognizing the local heroes who stopped to help Todd Buchanan earlier this month.

Congressman Pence will be presenting Normandy medals to 21 World War II veterans who served in Normandy. The veterans hail from Delaware, Jay and Madison counties.

Along with these veterans, Congressman Pence will be recognizing the heroic efforts of Muncie Police Officers Kyle Temple, Allen Webster, and Bruce Smith who stopped to help Todd Buchanan on State Road 67 on July 5th.

"I am privileged to have an opportunity to publicly recognize these 21 men who have made the sacrifice for freedom and the three individuals who risked their lives to save another," said Pence.

The town hall meeting is scheduled for 1:00 PM on Saturday, July 17 at the Muncie City Hall Auditorium.

###